NOTES FROM THE NEST

WINTER 2021

GREETINGS AND HAPPY HOLIDAYS TO OUR FEATHER-LOVING FRIENDS!

We reach the end of a year we will never forget, and look forward to 2022.

Thankfully, the kids got to go back to school, some folks back to work, some never going back, some pursuing new adventures, and some following life long dreams! What huge changes for all of us to adapt to!

Our Christmas card this year will show some of our animal ambassadors that have been with us for many years. The eagles have both been with Sky Hunters for over 22 years—what a privilege to care for them.

Our team members and volunteers have faithfully stepped up to the plate, keeping the birds and their enclosures nice and tidy, and volunteering for off-site education programs.

Shawnie Williams did several weeks of education programs at Elfin Forest Nature Center in Escondido, one of our nicest nature centers in the County. Sharyl Massey took care of the Foothills Art Gallery Wildlife show with me and two of our volunteers, Mallory Dotson and Lauren Sopata. They each had glove training with the screech owl and kestrel.

Thank you to our members and volunteers! Wishing you all great health and happiness, and good times out in nature where you can see our marvelous raptors!
